President David's Musings

At the handover evening with a theme on the 4th July American Independence Day many of us did dress up for the occasion, I would like to thank the Quorn Lodge staff as their outfits were very impressive. Congratulations to Past President Paul for receiving the President Citation Award from Assistant Governor Garner Roberts for his year as president.

11th July members visited the Melton Carneige Museum, the curator Rotarian Jenny Dancey described all aspects of the museum. I was very impressed with the new extension. Jenny said it was a hand's on living museum especially for school children who visit, they get to understand what life was like in Melton Mowbray in the past and to the present day environment.

It was a fine evening for the 18th July, when members had a very pleasant walk along part of the Grantham canal towpath at Hickling, and we finished with a meal at the Plough Inn. You certainly get value for your money, we all got a large plateful of food, many of us had difficulty in eating it all. Many thanks goes to Humphrey for arranging this event.

25th July we had an excellent speaker with Darren Bicknall on his life as professional cricketer, he is now working for the Belvoir Cricket Trust. Many young people benefit from this Trust with playing cricket at many levels. You may have noticed that Darren had two fingers strapped together, he explained what happened. A cricket ball knocked one of his fingers out of its socket, one of his fellow cricketers tried to put it back into its socket without success. A nearby lady physiotherapist came to help. She gave the finger a slight twist pushing it back in place. It made my eyes water a bit when he told me what happened. When it was back in place he carried on playing cricket, and the next day he had them strapped together. That's what I call dedication to the game of cricket. Thank you to Rtn David Brown for handing over the raffle rollover of £256 to the President's charity, which is Rotary Life Education Melton.

That's a good start to this Rotary Year and I look forward to the future events

David
